

Ride the Rez' with Malcolm Smith!

GREETINGS FROM BOB GRAZIANO

The Soboba Trail Ride is a yearly event that dates back to the grass roots of modern dirt bikes. Many motorcycle greats (real and movie type) have participated in Soboba's challenge. It began in the early 70's when Benny Helm, then Chief of the Tribe, started the first Soboba Grand Prix.

These (enduros) were among the largest in the country and soon outgrew our facilities. Then in the early 80's Bob Graziano, cousin (through marriage) of Chief Helm and a resident of the reservation, teamed with Malcolm Smith (eight-time I.S.D.T. gold medalist) to gain tribal council approval to launch the SOBOBA TRAIL RIDE. To help control crowds the event became invitational-only and no spectators are allowed.

Now, with a history of nearly 35-years of tribal council approval, AMA event sanction plus the promise of unpredictable Southern California weather, off-road legend Malcolm Smith hits the trail at 8:00 AM on ride-day to lead off this very special event that takes place entirely on the Soboba Indian Reservation (Private Property) with the approval of the tribal council.

This is a EARLY BIRD notice for a "Invitation Only" ride with a limited number of spots available. WE ARE ACCEPTING SOME NEW APPLICATIONS AT THIS TIME. Riders from last year's event will have first pick, we will then add riders from other select events and prior year rides to go on our future-riders list. Also, because of the ride's "invitation only" status you must mail in your entry with payment as-soon-as-possible.

Don't delay, call or apply early to get the best shot at getting into the 2011 event. Yes, this is a trail ride. Yes, it is open to all sizes and types of motorcycles. Yes, it is tough. Yes, there are two single track loops of about thirty miles each. Yes, you can take as much time as you need or want to finish each loop. You may recall that the BLM sold a large portion of the mountain to the tribe. The new trails used the last three years are still in use with even more new trails so expect great riding fun, challenges and spectacular scenery.
